QUARTERLY HIGHLIGHTS

In the second quarter of 2023, the Matrix Advisors Value Fund added to its good start to the year, posting a positive mid-single-digit return of +5.07%. For the first six months of the year, the Fund is up +13.42%, a strong six months by most measures but behind the technology-weighted S&P 500® Index but nicely ahead of the Russell 1000 Value Index. While the Value style has struggled in general this year, our Fund has been helped by its exposure to a number of the mega-cap technology stocks that have benefited from investor enthusiasm over advances in artificial intelligence (AI).

Importantly, while the Fund has nice year-to-date gains, we think it has substantial additional upside. We expect some of 2023's lagging sectors like Financials, Healthcare, and Industrials to make meaningful contributions to the Fund's upside in the back half of the year. During the quarter, the Fund bought a new position in United Health Group. We also added to the position in L3Harris with proceeds from several modest scale-backs and made some trades as part of our tax mitigation strategy.

We believe the Fund's portfolio is well positioned for the second half of the year as the businesses are operating at a very high level with strong earnings and cash flows, yet it sells at a very attractive valuation. On June 30, the average P/E multiple of the Fund's portfolio was 17.6x and 15.3x on 2023 and 2024 estimated earnings, discounts to the S&P 500's 20.3x and 18.1x estimated P/Es*. The average embedded appreciation potential of the portfolio was more than 40%, which is very attractive on an absolute basis and above our historic average
